

Hard work spotlights the character of people: some turn up their sleeves, some turn up their noses, and some don't turn up at all. —Sam Ewing

WHY ARE SOME EMPLOYEES DISENGAGED? WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT?

Your employees are your most valuable asset and they DIRECTLY affect your bottom line. Statistics suggest that disengaged employees cost companies in the U.S. as much as half a trillion dollars a year in lost productivity!

CHARACTERISTICS OF DISENGAGED EMPLOYEES INCLUDE:

- Minimally productive
- Complain constantly
- Miss deadlines
- Take more sick days
- Have a negative impact on company morale
- Undermine other employees

ENGAGED EMPLOYEES – in addition to being the complete opposite of the employees described above, possess the following attributes:

- Understand and embrace the Mission and Vision of the company.
- Understand their place in the company and fully comprehend how they contribute to and participate in the company's success.
- Understand how their job contributes to and fits within the larger framework of their own lives and individual pursuits.
